

Notes

N. Evenson

1. Spaces

The Staff has 4 spaces. Counting from the bottom up, they spell the word "FACE"

Violin
F A C E

Draw in the notes below in the 4 spaces:

<sup>2</sup>
F A C E F C A E E F C A C A E

2. Lines

The Staff has 5 lines. Counting from the bottom up, the saying:

"Every Good Boy Does Fine" can help you remember the note names.

<sup>3</sup>
E G B D F

Draw in the notes below on the 5 lines:

<sup>4</sup>
E G F D S G E F D B G E D B F

3. Lines and Spaces!

<sup>5</sup>
F

The Bottom and the Top!

6

D G

The Entire Staff in all its Glory.

7

Notes on the D String. Draw the letter name below:

8

Notes on the A String. Draw the letter name below:

9

Ledger Lines. Used so that notes can be placed above and below the staff in an orderly way. A ledger line is a short line drawn above or below the staff, keeping the same distance apart as and placed parallel to, the lines of the staff.

Copy each note below by re-drawing the note to its right. 1. Draw ledger line(s) 2. Draw note.

10

11

10
4

Learn the Notes on the E-String. Notice how it follows the musical alphabet!

12

E F G A B

---

Learn the Notes on the G-String. Notice how it follows the musical alphabet!

G A B C D

---

Notes on the E String. Draw the letter name below:

14

---

Notes on the G String. Draw the letter name below:

15

---

Mixing it all up! Draw the letter name below each note:

16

---

17

---